South Coast Wine Show

For the love of our regional wines

A Section of Milton Show Society Incorporated

Jointly Sponsored by

Hazcorp Pty Ltd & Bawley Liquor Barn

This is an invitation to enter your wines in the 20th South Coast Wine Show. Entries for commercial wines are accepted only from producers within the South Coast Zone (ie, as defined by the Australian Wine and Brandy Corporation).

For some 19 years the Milton Show Society has hosted the South Coast Wine Show. The SCWS has been the accredited wine show for the South Coast Zone, ie the South Coast Zone, as described at <https://www.wineaustralia.com/labelling/geographical-indicators/labelling-gi-south-coast>, which included

- the Shoalhaven Coast GI (region),
<https://www.wineaustralia.com/labelling/geographical-indicators/labelling-gi-shoalhaven-coast>, and
- the Southern highlands GI (region),
<https://www.wineaustralia.com/labelling/geographical-indicators/labelling-gi-southern-highlands> ,

The SCWS seeks to operate as consistently as possible within the 2015 Australian Society of Viticulture and Oenology, (ASVO) guidelines to create public and industry awareness and appreciation of the wines produced within the South Coast Zone.

Exhibiting wines provides an opportunity for growers and vignerons to learn and contribute to the ongoing quest of improving the quality of wines produced in our Zone.

No members of the general public will attend the Exhibitors’ Tasting. Judges’ comments on entries will not be available independently. Exhibitors and winemakers are encouraged to attend the Exhibitors tasting to give and receive feedback on their results and general direction & operation of the Show.

(New for 2019) The committee will publish information on award winning wineries mid-December, of previous year’s wine show and also immediately after the current wine show.

We look forward to receiving your entries and seeing you at the exhibitors and public tastings.

There will be a display of award winning wines at the Milton Show in March 2019.

Entry Conditions

1. All wines from 2018 vintages and older can be entered in Regional, Open and Aged Classes and be eligible for Medals and Special Awards if they meet the definition of being commercially available.

Entry Conditions for Regional or Open Classes

1. All entries from vintages 2013 -2018 will be automatically considered for Medals, Trophy and Special Awards.
2. Three (3) bottles per entry.
3. Wines entered in Regional Classes must contain a minimum of 85% grape material grown within the South Coast Region. Wines entered in Open Classes may contain more than 15% of grape material grown outside the South Coast Region
4. Entries in Regional and Open Classes must be commercially available at the time of entry and the entrant complies with one of the following:
 - a. The Entrant has a cellar door – the wine must be available for sale to the public, listed on current sale price lists and listed on Entrant's website, if applicable.
 - b. The Entrant does not have a cellar door – the wine entered must be available for sale to the general public. Please send a copy of your current mail order price list, website link or other confirmation documentation.
 - c. An Entrant's wine that is not currently available – but will be available in accordance with a & b above during the calendar year. A minimum quantity of 20% of the original quantity must be in commercially available. Please advise the initial quantity, current stock on hand, quantity produced and the intended release date of the wine not currently available on your entry form.

Awards

1. Judges may award, Bronze, Silver or Gold Medals within each Class in accordance with the ASVO Judging standards. < <https://www.asvo.com.au/> > within each class. Entries will be judged using the 100 point system, where Bronze Medal 85-89; Silver Medal 90-94; and Gold 95-100 points.
2. Wines will not qualify for awards unless they meet the above commercially available conditions.
3. To be eligible to be considered for Special and Trophy awards the wine must be awarded Gold Medal, or where no Gold was awarded in a class, a Best in Class Award.

 - Best Open Class Wine of Shoalhaven Coast and
 - Best Open Class Wine of Southern Highlands.

The Trophies will be awarded from Regional or Open Classes:

- South Coast Wine Show – Best White Wine
- South Coast Wine Show – Best Red Wine
- South Coast Wine Show Best Wine of Show

All awards are confidential until formally announced at the exhibitors tasting.

General Compliance

1. Entries are open to commercial wines, made either using a minimum of 85% of grape material grown in the South Coast Zone (Regional Classes) or made within the South Coast Zone from grape material that is more than 15% sourced from outside the South Coast Zone (Open Classes).
2. All entries must be from current bottled commercial batches of wine, packaged in their final saleable format at the time of entry. Where bottling is in progress, at least 30% of the final volume must be packaged in its final saleable form at time of entry.
3. All entries become the property of the Milton Show Society Inc. The SCWS Committee reserve the right to accept or reject any entry, and /or to check that entries satisfy the conditions or entry.
4. Wine Audit – Entrants, by entering their wine, accept these conditions of entry and agree to assist the SCWS Committee with any verification processes applicable. For example a range of entered wines may be acquired by the SCWS Committee separately for comparison against entries at judging alternatively audits may be carried out on award winning wines at the discretion of the SCWS Committee.

5. Entries will not be accepted where the entry fee, entry forms are not received, incomplete or freight has not been paid.
6. SCWS Committee will assist entrants to meet these technical requirements where ever possible.

Laws and Codes

1. All entries must conform to the respective State and Federal Acts which govern the production of wine and brandy, including but not limited to; The Customs and Excise Act, Health Act, Spirit Act and regulations relevant to such Acts.
2. Advertising of Awards - No exhibitor will advertise or promote (via media articles or stories, cellar door list and websites etc.) or allow to be advertised, by any means whatsoever, the fact that any exhibit has won an awards unless such advertisement clearly shows:
 - a. The full and correct year and name of the show, ie (2019 South Coast Wine Show);
 - b. Type of award (ie Trophy, Special Award, Gold, Silver or Bronze);
 - c. Class Number; and
 - d. Commercial name of the wine and if applicable its vintage year.
3. Failure to comply with article 2 above may mean exclusion from future entry in wine shows.
4. Display of awards on bottles – entrants must comply with the Winemakers' Federation of Australia code of practice for the display of awards. This code prevents the use of medals, stickers, symbols or other devices on a bottle or soft pack in order to misleadingly convey the impression that a wine has received an award. Awards must only be applied to wines bearing the name under which the exhibit was entered.
